Ralph E. Hunter, founder and curator of the African American Heritage Museum will be our presenter.

Madame Sarah Spencer Washington was a millionaire black business woman who founded a hairdressing business in Atlantic City, NJ in 1913 which later expanded into the Apex News and Hair Company. She was honored at the 1939 New York World's Fair as the "Most Distinguished Businesswomen." Her beauty colleges were located in twelve states and employed 35,000 agents all over the world. She was the backbone of the local black community and founded a nursing home, golf course, and country club for black residents of Atlantic County.
